

Which US state had the highest amount of spending at the music store?

The graph below shows that the US state with the highest spending was California, which had a total spending of $116. Texas came in second with a total spending of $48. All other states with purchases had a total spending of around $40

What was the largest purchase for each year?

The chart below shows the largest purchase made in each year, between 2009 and 2013. The overall trend has been for the largest purchase to increase as time goes on. The year with the smallest purchase ($14) was 2009 and the largest purchase ($26) was in 2013.

What are the most common media types?

As shown in the graph below, a MPEG audio file is by far the most common media type at this music store with over 3,000 of the tracks being in this format. There are about 200 each of AAC audio files (237) and MPEG-4 video files (214). AAC audio files and purchased AAC audio files are the least common, both with less than 15 tracks.

What 5 genres have the shortest average song length?

The chart below shows the five music genres with the shortest average song length (in milliseconds). Rock and Roll has the shortest average song length (134644 milliseconds.) The other four genres with the shortest songs were opera, hip hop/rap, easy listening, and bossa nova.

